

Long Term Disability Insurance

How does it work?

This employer-paid coverage provides a monthly benefit if you have a covered illness or injury and you can't work for a few months — or even longer.

You're generally considered disabled if you're unable to do important parts of your job — and your income suffers as a result.

Why is this coverage so valuable?

Your employer is paying the cost of this coverage. You can use the money however you choose. It can help you pay for your rent or mortgage, groceries, out-of-pocket medical expenses and more.

How much coverage can I get?

You*	You are eligible for coverage if you are an active employee in the United States working a minimum of 24 hours per week. Cover 60% of your monthly income, up to a maximum payment of $20,000. <small>*Increases in benefit as of 1/1/2025 will be subject to a new 3/12 pre-existing condition period.</small> <small>*See the Legal Disclosures for more information.</small>
------	--

The monthly benefit may be reduced or offset by other sources of income. The IRS may require you to pay taxes on certain benefit payments. See your tax advisor for details.

Clyde & Co. US LLP is paying the cost of this coverage so you don't have to answer health questions.

This plan does not cover pre-existing conditions. See the disclosure section to learn more.

Elimination period (EP)

Your elimination period is 180 days. This is the number of days that must pass after a covered accident or illness before you can begin to receive benefits.

Benefit duration (BD)

This is the maximum length of time you can receive benefits while you're disabled. You can receive benefits up to the Social Security (SS) normal retirement age. If you become disabled after your normal retirement age, check with your employer for the maximum length of time applicable to you.

Additional benefits:

Specialty definition of disability

For attorneys, regular occupation means the insured's specialty in the practice of law which he/she is routinely performing when his/her disability begins. Unum will look at the insured's occupation as it is normally performed in the national economy, instead of how the work tasks are performed for a specific employer or at a specific location.

Exclusions and limitations

Active employee

You are considered in active employment, if on the day you apply for coverage, you are being paid regularly by your employer for the required minimum hours each week and you are performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation.

Delayed effective date of coverage

Insurance coverage will be delayed if you are not an active employee because of an injury, sickness, temporary layoff, or leave of absence on the date that insurance would otherwise become effective.

Benefit Duration

The duration of your benefit payments is based on your age when your disability occurs. Your Long Term Disability benefits are payable while you continue to meet the definition of disability. Please refer to your plan document for the duration of benefits under this policy.

Definition of disability

You are considered disabled when Unum determines that:

- You are limited from performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation due to sickness or injury; and
- You have a 20% or more loss of indexed monthly earnings due to the same sickness or injury.

You must be under the regular care of a physician in order to be considered disabled.

The loss of a professional or occupational license or certification does not, in itself, constitute disability.

“Substantial and material acts” means the important tasks, functions and operations that are generally required by employers from those engaged in your usual occupation and that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified.

Pre-existing conditions

You have a pre-existing condition if:

- You received medical treatment, consultation, care or services including diagnostic measures for the condition, or took prescribed drugs or medicines for it in the 3 months just prior to your effective date of coverage; and
- The disability begins in the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage

If you have a disability caused by, contributed to by, or resulting from your pre-existing condition,

- You will not be entitled to receive benefit payments during the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage;
- Benefit payments are not payable for such period and will not be paid at any time; and
- To receive benefit payments after such period, you must continue to be disabled and meet all other terms and conditions under the plan.

If — after your coverage effective date, but before the pre-existing exclusion period ends — you experience a disabling condition that is covered but pre-existing, you can begin receiving benefits when the exclusion period ends. But the payment period will be reduced by amount of time during which you suffered from the condition during the exclusion period.

Deductible sources of income

Your disability benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income and any earnings you have while you are disabled, including such items as group disability benefits or other amounts you receive:

- Workers' compensation or similar occupational benefit laws, including a temporary disability benefit under a workers' compensation laws
- State compulsory benefit laws
- Automobile liability insurance policy
- No fault motor vehicle plan
- Third-party settlements
- Other group insurance plans
- A group plan sponsored by your employer
- Governmental retirement system
- Salary continuation or sick leave plans - if included
- Retirement payments
- Social Security or similar governmental programs

Exclusions and limitations

Your plan does not cover any disabilities caused by, contributed to by, or resulting from your:

- Intentionally self-inflicted injuries;
- Active participation in a riot;
- Participation in a felony

Your plan will not cover a disability due to war, declared or undeclared, or any act of war.

The lifetime cumulative maximum benefit for all disabilities due to mental illness is 24 months. Only 24 months of benefits will be paid for any combination of such disabilities even if the disabilities are not continuous and/or are not related. Payments can continue beyond 24 months only if you are confined to a hospital or institution as a result of the disability.

Termination of coverage

Your coverage under the policy ends on the earliest of the following:

- The date the policy or plan is cancelled
- The date you no longer are in an eligible group

- The date your eligible group is no longer covered
- The last day of the period for which you made any required contributions
- The last day you are in active employment except as provided under the covered layoff or leave of absence provision.
